

The tradition of laying wreaths to honor our veterans during the holiday season began in 1992, when Morrill Worcester of Worcester Wreath Company of Maine had a number of extra wreaths at the close of the holiday season. Remembering a boyhood trip to the nation's capital and the sacred grounds of Arlington National Cemetery, he donated 5,000 wreaths to be placed at the headstones of an older section of the cemetery.

What began as one man's gesture has now grown into a national movement. Each wreath honors all servicemen and women for their selfless sacrifice and that of their families who are without loved ones during the holidays, as well as funding veteran and educational programs.

Events at Barrancas National Cemetery, Pensacola Naval Air Station will be held Saturday, December 12, 2015; wreath laying from 9:00 to 10:30 a.m.; Remembrance Ceremony at the cemetery annex at 11:00 a.m. CST.

Wreath laying ceremonies will be held at exactly this same time at more than 750 locations all around the world.
